I. INVOCATION / I. INVOCATIO

We invoke night, / Nox, te invocamus
“Come to us, / ”Veni ad nos
fall upon us like fine rain.” / eveni super nos modo tenuis imbris.”

We who were born at the oceans’ spring / Nos, qui nati sumus fonte marium call to you, / vocamus te:
“Cover us with grace.” / “ Protege nos cum gratia tua.”

Let our feet carry us deeper / Nostri pedes portent nos profundius into the night, / in noctem,
as deep into the night as we can go. / quam profunditer ut ire possimus.

II. NYCTEREUTES (Night Hunter) / II. VENATOR NOCTIS

You lived so long within my breast, / Tam diu in meo pectore habitavisti, your heartbeat tripled. / pulsus cordis mei triplicant.
But now, Nyctereutes, you roam free. / Sed nunc, Nyctereutes, vagaris libere.

Your eyes glow like a nighthawk’s; / Oculi tui, modo accipitris nocterni, ardent you move like a shadow; / tu, modo umbrae, moves;
creatures are silent as you pass. / animalia silent ut tu praeteris transis.

Your howl rises and rises, / Ululatus tuus exsurgit crescendique and then falls over the land. / sed tum super terram decedit.
The oceans roar with you throughout the night. / Oceani tecum per noctem fremunt.

Wipe away the trail of my tears. / Absterge vestigium lacrimarum mearum.
Hold my body against your heart. / Tene iuxta tuum cor corpus meum.
Feed me from your mouth. / Pasce me ab ore tuo.

I will wipe away the trail of your tears. / Abstergam vestigium lacrimarum tuarum.
I will hold your body against my heart. / Teneam iuxta meum cor corpus tuum.
I will feed you from my mouth. / Pascam te ab ore meo.

III. FOREST GUARDIAN / III. DEFENSOR SILVAE

Watcher, / Custos,
kin of shadows, / consanguineus umbrarum,
guardian of the forest, / defensor Silvae,
your eyes see all. / oculi tui omnia vident.

Boughs sway, black against black. / Rami agitant, atre contra atrum.
Beloved one of darkness, / Amatus tenebrae,
our breathing lies / spiritus noster cubat
like a priceless bowl in your hands. / quam inaestimabilis poculum in manibus tuis.

IV. MOONFISH / IV. CARINGIDA

Like a shipwrecked hull, / Ut naufragium, grief drifts slowly fathoms deep / dolor sensim fluitat imis ulnis until caught in the sands of the ocean floor, / donec captus in harenis maris, cradled and held. / amplexus atque tentus est.

Moonfish, weaving through the ancient ribs, / Caringida, se contexens per compagites antiquos, your eyes behold without flinching this sorrow, / oculi tui, aspicientes humc dolorem, softening it with each passing of your silver body, / non refugent emollientes eum quoties corpus argentum tuum
transit
until it falls away. / donec dissolvit.

Beneath the sands of the ocean floor / Sub harenis maris
at the very molten core, / liquefactissima media
a chant, like a great, great gear, / cantus modo magni, magni apparatus is sung eternally. / per aeternum cantatiur.

V. THE MOONCALF'S DITTY (In English)

La, la, la, lah dee dah
La, la, la, lah dee dah
La la la dum, etc.

Jol-ly jolly pretty nighty nighty!
Ful-ly moony bright! bright! bright!
Kitty cattles kitty cattles kitty cattles
Kitty cattles doggies fight! fight! fight!!
Fight-y wighty fighty wighty nighty!
Pret-ty pretty night! night! night!
It's a jolly jolly jolly jolly jolly jol-ly night!!!

(repeat)

VI. THE SLEEPWALKER / VI. SOMNAMBULATOR

I will meet you at Peniel / Conveniemus in Phanuel
in the depths of night, / in intemperate nocte,
on the banks of the ancient river. / in ripis antiqui fluminis.
You, the Angel, / Tu, Angelus
will fight with me at Peniel all the night / pugnabis mecum in Phanuel tota nocte through the deepest hours. / per imas horas.
And when the full time is come, / Et cum tempus plenum adveniat,
when the full time is come, / cum plenum tempus adveniat,
may my heartbands be loosened, / ligamina volveani cordis mei;
may my tears fall like fine rain bathing my face, / lacrimae meae cadant modo tenuis imbris faciem meam perfundentis,
like rain bathing my face // modo imbris faciem meam perfundentis,
when the full time has come. / cum tempus plenum adventum est.

At Peniel at dawn I will see the face of God, / Phanuel primo luce faciem Dei videbo,
I will see the face of God / faciem Dei videbo
on the banks of the beautiful river. / in ripis fluminis amoeni.

VII. IN PRAISE OF NIGHT / VII. IN LAUDE NOCTIS

We sing to night, / Cantamus ad noctem,
“You are a promise, a great danger, / “Tu es fides, magnum periculum, an unveiling of beauty, a fulfillment of desire, / patefactio pulchritudinis, cupidinis confectio,

“An awakening of the heart, / “Excitatio cordis,
a mighty storm, / tempestas valida,
a constant, a repose.” / constans, requies.”

You sing to your beloved, / Tu cantas ad amatam tuam,
“Come to me, come to me, / “Veni ad me, veni ad me,
I will cover you with my grace.” / cum mea gratia te protegam.”

Somnambulator

I will meet you at Peniel
 in the depths of night
 on the banks of the ancient river.
 You, the angel,
 will fight with me at Peniel all the night
 through the deepest hours.
 And when the full time is come, when the full time is come,
 may my heartbands be loosened,
 may my tears fall like fine rain bathing my face, like rain bathing my face when the full time has come.
 At Peniel at dawn I will see the face of God.
 I will see the face of God
 on the banks of the beautiful river.
